What's Hot in August?

Answer: The annual August barbeque at the Mugrage's house (2094 Miles Rd). If you close your eyes you can almost smell it, the ribs and chicken soaked with Texas style barbeque sauce simmering hour after hour. Because it takes most of the day to do it right, we will meet at their house at 5:00 P.M. on Friday, August 13. We will be eating in the breezeway unless the weather is really hot. Then we will eat in the air-conditioned house.

We only ask that you bring a favorite dish for the meal and as usual we ask for $5 per person to cover expenses.

Since Lorraine Loomans will be out of town from now till August 12, I suggest that you contact Dr. Bill at 591-4848 in order to make your reservation.

Past Events

A nice group of us took a 100-mile scenic drive along the Ohio River to get to the Inn at Clifty Falls, Indiana where we had a delicious meal. The overlook is also good.

On Sunday the 11th, some of us went to hear the Cincinnati Civic Orchestra at 7 PM at Arlington Cemetery. Then on Thursday, the 28th of July, twenty seven of us went to La Comedia to enjoy a great meal and an excellent show, Rogers & Hammerstein's musical Cinderella. As expected, it had good comedy and romance.

The Joy of Eating

What's hot with Silver Heirs? EATING! It seems appropriate that we end with an eating joke.

A finicky diner asks her waiter, "How do you prepare your chicken. The waiter says, "Nothing special miss. We just tell them straight they're going to die."
